

Dane County

Minutes - Final Unless Amended by Committee

Community Justice Council

Consider:

Who benefits? Who is burdened?

Who does not have a voice at the table?

How can policymakers mitigate unintended consequences?

D. Presentations

1. Strategic Plan for Dane County Community Justice Council

Justice Management Institute

Thomas Eberly from the Justice Management Institute provided an overview of the process to collaboratively develop a strategic plan for the CJC. The plan will establish clear priorities and guidance for the Council, its staff, and subcommittees over the next three years. Committee members were encouraged to schedule meetings with JMI to share their input.

Discussion ensued regarding the timing of the next meeting, the best way to address the diverse needs of Dane County, what workgroups will look like, and which stakeholders will be interviewed.

2. Re-Booking Analysis

Tamarine Cornelius of the Office of Justice Reform presented information about people who are repeatedly booked into the jail. Discussion ensued regarding the frequency with which people are booked on an ordinance violation, the need for housing and behavioral health services, and potential differences among police departments. CJC members commented on the importance and value of the data work.
